Syllabus Guidance

The Certificate of Proficiency in Insolvency (CPI) is an intermediate insolvency qualification covering both personal and corporate insolvency. Structure of the examination

The exam covers personal and corporate insolvency based on legislation and practice in force as at the 1st January of the year in which the exam is sat with an equal emphasis on corporate and personal insolvency. Certificate of Proficiency in Insolvency (CPI) and Certificate of Proficiency in Personal Insolvency (CPPI)

Candidates may opt for the CPI sister exam if they wish to primarily focus on personal insolvency (CPPI) or take the CPI which covers both corporate and personal insolvency. These exams are set at the same standard and will share some questions. All papers will be sat on the same dates.

The syllabi for the CPI and CPPI are set out separately. Although the CPPI syllabi largely duplicate the personal elements of the CPI syllabus, candidates can expect the examiner to test knowledge of the range of personal insolvency solutions, including advisory aspects, in more depth in the CPPI exams than in the more generalist CPI exam. In the case of the personal insolvency paper (CPPI) there will be more weight given to non-statutory solutions eg. debt management plans.

The CPPI will include regulation, ethics, SIPs and other guidance which will account for approximately 20% of the available marks.
